

It was a nice night in Seattle. Luca went outside.

Luca looked at the stars.
You like to explore, the voice said.

There was a doorway! Luca walked through.

Stars were all around! Luca felt brave.

Luca noticed footprints and followed them.

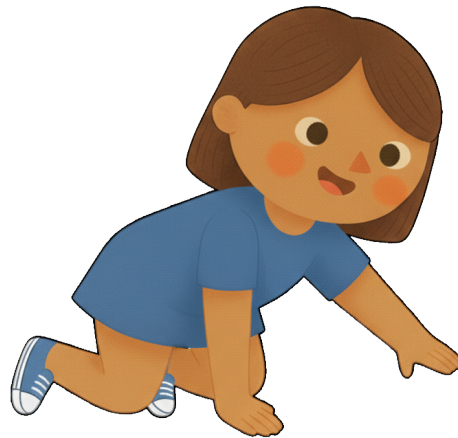

The path went through giant trees. Luca felt small, but not scared.

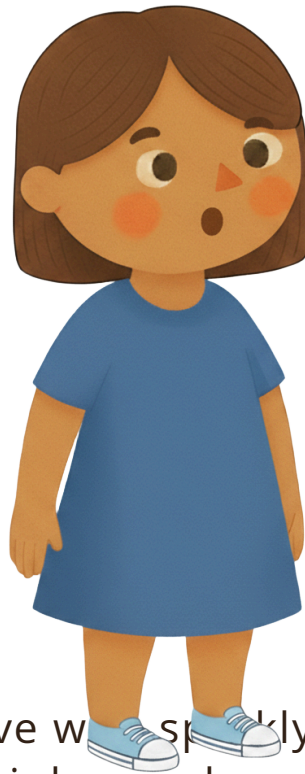

Look how far you came, the voice said.

Lunch was waiting! Luca ate happily.
You earned this, the voice said.

The path became warm sand. Look down
there, the voice said.
Luca found a beautiful shell!

Luca found a cave with sparkly crystals! They glowed with rainbow colors. You can find beauty everywhere, the voice said.

The path went through giant flowers. The petals were SO big!
You make others happy, the voice said.

The voice felt very close now. You are perfect
just as you are, it said.
Luca looked around. Where was the voice?

 Tiger Appears

Unicorn appeared! It was the voice!
I have been with you this whole time, said
Unicorn.

 Tiger Flying

Ready to fly home? asked Unicorn. They flew through the stars to Seattle.
I am always in your heart, said Unicorn.
